RIDBA Building Awards 2019

The winners of the RIDBA Building Awards 2019 have been announced at a glittering Dinner & Awards on 15 March.

The Rural and Industrial Design and Building Association (RIDBA) runs the awards bi-annually, this year hosted by star of BBC Springwatch, Lucy Cooke at the De Vere East Midlands Conference Centre in Nottinghamshire.

The 2019 finalists have showcased innovative and revolutionised work that has been recognised within the industrial and agricultural building industry.

Members who have shown outstanding individual achievements throughout their projects and are recognised for the award below:

Overall Winner

- The Dojima Sake Brewery, Fordham – M D Anthony

Highly Commended

- Centre of Dairy Science Innovation, University of Nottingham – Haston Reynolds

Special Recognition

- The Tin Coo, Bishopston Farm – Shand Building Design

RIDBA Chairman, Mike Hammond said:

'It has been a pleasure to be RIDBA Chairman during this fantastic work, and yet again the RIDBA Building Awards showcase excellence in our trade.

Congratulations to RIDBA Building Awards 2019 Overall Winner, the Dojima Sake Brewery. The project showed how M D Anthony Ltd balanced the challenging planning and design issued of a Grade II listed building with delivering a culturally appropriate building – a real testament to expertise, creativity and aesthetics.

Finally, I would like to thank all of our sponsors, without their support, these awards would not have been possible.'
